DIXON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, NOV. 29, 1907

Twenty-Fourth Year No. 280

TWO MORE NIGHTS OF THE ELKS FAIR

GOOD PROGRAM WILL OPEN THE FESTIVITIES THIS EVENING.

BIG CROWDS ARE ENTERTAINED

Dancing Floor Filled Last Night—Wednesday Night Was Also Much Enjoyed.

Tonight is high school and Sterling night at the Elks fair. The following excellent program has been arranged for the occasion:

Vocal Solo—Miss Hazel Kenneth. Piano Duet—Misses Catherine Strong and Carrie Kenneth.

The above program in itself will be the means of bringing a large crowd out. Many young people are expected from Sterling.

A large crowd was present both Wednesday and Thursday nights. On Wednesday evening the crowd was highly entertained by Miss Shaner, reader, and Misses Belle Floto and Cora Harbaugh, and Mrs. Lee Read with musical selections.

Thursday evening there was no program aside from the dancing, but this feature of the fair was enjoyed until after midnight. Richard Newman was present and played in the orchestra.

All the fowls at the postal card wheel were disposed of, and many Dixon homes had a Thanksgiving dinner supplied by the Elks.

Just For Fun.

Tonight and tomorrow night, and then the fun is over, so get busy before it is too late.

The crowd was very cosmopolitan last night, but everyone had a lovely time.

Regardless of the show at the opera house and the Dixon club party, the dance floor was always filled and sometimes just a little too full for ease and comfortable dancing.

The old faces that we see every night reported early last night.

There were visitors present from Ottawa, Chicago, Streator, Aurora and other cities nearby.

The younger element turned out well last night.

When eleven o'clock comes most of the married people depart and turn the last hour over to the "kids."

Two more nights, so come early each night and do well your part.

WILL OF THE LATE

CHARLES DEERE READ
Rock Island, Nov. 28—Special—The will of the late Charles Deere, founder of the Deere Plow company, was made public yesterday. Practically the entire estate, valued at over $20,000,000, is left to Charles Deere Wyman and D. E. Wyman, grandchildren of the deceased implement manufacturer. The estate is left in trust to be paid to the legatees in installments between the ages of 30 and 50 years.

NEW ASSISTANT AT

THE CEMENT PLANT
F. B. Blockett of Ottawa has been appointed assistant superintendent of the Sandusky Portland Cement company in this city, to succeed Harvey Durbin. Mr. Blockett comes highly recommended.

A. C. SPECHT DEAD.

Mrs. Theron Hendrix has received word of the death of A. C. Specht at Los Angeles, Cal., on Nov. 11th. For a number of years he conducted a shoe store in this city where the Leader millinery store is now located.

C. C. SMITH IN CHARGE.

Clement C. Smith, president of the Columbia Construction company and one of the directors of the Sterling, Dixon and Eastern Electric Railway company, is here from Milwaukee, and will remain here a few weeks during the absence of Manager Kirk.

IS FOREMAN AT PLANT.

Charles E. Graeff and family have taken rooms at the Steel flats. Mr. Graeff is now foreman of the machine department at the cement works.

MRS. C. H. KEELER DIED IN FLORIDA

DEATH UNEXPECTED, THOUGH SHE HAD BEEN IN POOR HEALTH.

RELEASED FROM LONG SUFFERING

Demise Occurred Monday—Remains Will Be Taken to Pennsylvania in the Spring.

The many friends of Mrs. C. H. Keeler will be shocked to learn of her death at the Cleveland hotel, Daytona, Florida, at 4:45 o'clock on last Monday evening, Nov. 25th. She had been a patient sufferer for many months and was near death's door at her home here last summer. She regained her strength in a great measure and it was thought she would be restored to health by her stay in Florida this winter. This hope, however, was shattered by a severe attack of bronchitis and she passed away peacefully and peacefully.

The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved husband in his deep affliction and many in Dixon will mourn with him, for those who knew Mrs. Keeler personally honored her for her excellent qualities. She was a member of the Presbyterian church in Dixon and until confined at home by her illness was a faithful attendant at his services. She was a charter member of Dorothy chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and a member of the Relief Corps.

Born in Wyalusing township, Bradford county, Pennsylvania, she was a daughter of John and Sarah Biles. On March 20, 1861, she was married to C. H. Keeler. Most of her married life was spent in Owego, N. Y., but her later years were passed in Dixon, where Mr. Keeler was engaged in newspaper work. For several years they have spent their winters in Florida. Mr. Keeler being editor of the Daytona Journal during the winter seasons.

Mrs. Keeler is survived by her husband and three brothers. She also leaves a number of nieces and other relatives in Carroll county. The funeral occurred Wednesday, Nov. 27th, and the remains were temporarily interred at Daytona, to be taken to Towanda, Pa., in the spring for burial, as requested by her.

TALENT IS ADDED FOR THE ASSEMBLY

REV. JOHN ANDREW HOLMES AND MRS. PARK ARE SIGNED.

DATE OPEN FOR REV. SUNDAY

Prof. Baldwin Will Superintend the C. L. S. C. Work and Organize the Classes.

Dr. Beard of Polo has added several splendid attractions to the Rock River assembly, among others Rev. John Andrew Holmes of Iowa, and Mrs. Zoe Pearl Park, a concert contralto.

Dr. Beard was very fortunate in securing the services of Prof. Baldwin as local manager for the C. L. S. C. and round table lectures. The professor will organize the reading circle, etc.

A date is being held open for Rev. William A. Sunday and if he is secured he will prove a strong drawing card.

PAWPAW INSTITUTE DEC. 14.

Supt. Edwards will hold a teachers' institute at Pawpaw on Saturday, Dec. 14th.

A meeting of the Sunday school teachers and officers of the Methodist church is called for this evening at 7:30 in the Epworth League room.

Henry Sartorius and wife of Palmyra gave a turkey dinner yesterday at which Harry Gerdes, Adam Scheer and Cal Sartorius, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Klosterman and son Harry of Prairieville, were present.

DELBERT GIRTON WON CROSS COUNTRY RUN

COVERED FIVE MILES IN 33:40 AND CAPTURED THE TURKEY.

GREAT INTEREST IN THE CONTEST

Crowds Watched the Fifteen Runners as They Started and Finished Their Course.

Delbert Girtion of North Dixon led the field in the big cross country run yesterday morning, covering the five mile course in 33:40. Heckman was second, time 33:41 1-5, and Spencer third, time 35:03 3-5.

There was a great deal of interest manifested in the event that was pulled off under the direction of Director Birch, and when the first runner started from the association rooms at 8:45 o'clock in the morning there was a crowd surrounding the start of the course. Herbert Bernstein was the first runner off the scratch, and following him went fourteen jersey-clad athletes at intervals of a minute, the last one accompanied by a pacemaker. All of the runners negotiated the course in excellent shape, and there were no exhaustions.

Following is the order in which they finished:

Girtion	33:40
Heckman	33:41 1-5
Spencer	33:03 3-5
Drew	35:09 3-5
Brace	37:07 3-5
Bernstein	37:37 1-5
A. Floto	38:00 4-5
Anderson	39:05 1-5
F. Grant	39:07 1-5
Blackburn	40:26
Bates	41:09 1-5
Ryneerson	41:13 1-5
H. Grant	44:05
Pitzele	49:05
Gylleck	an added starter, ran the course in 33:42 4-5.

NEARLY LOST TWO FINGERS

M. S. STONER HAD EARLY MORNING MISHAP AT CEMENT FACTORY.

M. S. Stoner of Highland avenue, while at work at the Sandusky cement plant, had the misfortune to almost sever from his left hand the ring and little fingers. His left arm from the wrist to the shoulder was badly lacerated. He was taken to the Dixon hospital where he is receiving medical treatment. Mr. Stoner is a member of the night shift and the accident happened shortly before he was ready to quit his night's work.

BROKE AGREEMENT WITH LIVERYMAN

STRANGER CAUSED DIXON MAN ANXIETY BY NOT RETURNING RIG.

CUSTOM GETTING TOO GENERAL

Sheriff Located the Team Which Was Later Brought Back to the Barn.

It is getting to be a very common thing for strangers to procure a team from a livery barn, driving it a dozen or more miles than they have contracted for and also not returning it until several hours after they have agreed to. A case like this happened in Dixon last Wednesday.

Three strangers came to a local liveryman and hired a team to drive to Lee Center, stating that they would return about three o'clock in the afternoon.

Three o'clock came but no rig; then four, five, seven, nine came and still no rig. The liveryman commenced to get alarmed and telephoned to Sheriff Tourtellott to begin a search for the missing rig.

After some little time the sheriff located the team about two miles west of Pawpaw, but in a little while after that he lost track of the team. He notified the authorities in the towns of Steward, Compton, Pawpaw, Lee Center and Amboy to look out for such a rig as he described.

About ten o'clock that night one of the strangers drove into the barn with the rig, and said that he had driven but a few miles west of Lee Center.

This, of course, was not true, as the sheriff located the team within a few miles of Pawpaw.

The party said that his two companions had taken the train at Amboy.

This is not believed by the sheriff, however. He believes that they took the train either at Roxbury or Scarborough, on the Milwaukee running south from Rochelle.

The liveryman charged the man ten dollars, five of which he paid in cash and for the rest he gave his check. The man who settled for the rig resides in Clinton, Ia., or at least the check he gave was on a bank in that city.

SERVICES AT NELSON.

Religious services will be conducted at Nelson Sunday afternoon by Rev. R. G. Moore. Sunday school will be held at 2 o'clock and preaching at 3 o'clock.

Sheriff and Mrs. Tourtellott entertained Thanksgiving day their sons Arthur and Alfred of Sublette, and daughter, Miss Mary of Ashton, Miss Leafy Welsh, Sergeant Bluff, Ia., and Bert Gatch, of Greenfield, Ia.

COMMITTED SUICIDE
Ypsilanti, Mich., Nov. 29—Special—Mayor John Van Fessenn suicided here today by shooting.

FARMER HUNG ONTO HIS MONEY

WHITESIDE MAN IN THE POLICE COURT FOR DRUNKENNESS SHOWS NEARLY $500.

John Doyle, a Whiteside county man, was in a Clinton police court on Tuesday morning to answer to a charge of drunkenness and opened the eyes of the justice and policemen by his display of wealth.

Doyle is a Gardenplain farmer. On Monday he drove over to Clinton and during the course of his day's visit he fell in with some congenial spirits. The result was a night in the city jail. Asked by the police judge in the morning if he could pay a fine of $5 and costs Doyle produced a pocket-book containing $450, which he had brought over with him from Gardenplain. The officers impressed upon the Illinois man that he was fortunate in not having lost the money while he was under the influence of liquor. Doyle quite agreed with them, and after he had paid his fine departed for his home across the river.

TO GIVE LECTURES ON ADVERTISING

WALT S. GOODWIN WILL GIVE A SERIES OF TALKS AT THE DIXON COLLEGE.

OF INTEREST TO BUSINESS MEN

First Lecture Will Be Given January Third—Illustrated and To the Point.

A series of ten specially arranged lectures on advertising for Dixon business men will be given by Walt S. Goodwin, superintendent of the Department of Advertising of the Dixon College and Normal school.

The lectures will be given commencing January 3, 1908, and weekly thereafter on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Goodwin comes to us highly recommended by students, business men and the press as a pleasing, forceful platform speaker, a versatile chalk talker, a natural born teacher, a ready wit and a successful business man.

During his experience of fifteen years, his originality in devising advertising ideas have brought him into contact with the leading men in all branches of publicity. He learned the strong and weak points of various advertising methods and men. He probably stands alone in America as the successful, unbiased, practical instructor of profitable advertising. And because of his broad training he has been frequently called upon to address business men's clubs and specially organize classes in several of the large commercial centers.

About four years ago Mr. Goodwin founded the Evening School of Advertising in Chicago. He is also director of the School of Advertising of Chicago Business college, instructor of Association Advertising in the Y. M. C. A. Institute and Training school and others.

The University of Wisconsin has honored Mr. Goodwin by an invitation to deliver a series of lectures on advertising before the School of Commerce.

His lectures will be illustrated with chalk and specimens of the best advertising to date.

Miss Hazel Rupert is spending her Thanksgiving vacation in the country with her sister, Mrs. Minnie Flitts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Taylor entertained H. O. Soper and family, Rev. F. D. Stone and family and Miss Maud Miller with a 6 o'clock Thanksgiving dinner.

Dr. Crosby of Lincoln, Ill., Mrs. Jones of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schuman and Dr. Henry of Streator were entertained at the Will Nixon home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kable entertained Thanksgiving day H. G. and H. J. Kable, editors of the Mt. Morris Index, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Longman and daughter, also of Mt. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Chronister entertained for dinner Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Sheets, Mr. and Mrs. Cummins and son Myron, Mr. and Mrs. Whitner and daughter Helen and his son Clyde and family, of Dixon. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Chronister of Franklin Grove, Mrs. Clark and son Donnel of Sibley, Ia.

McVICKER'S.

For years McVicker's theatre in Chicago was the great playhouse of the west. McVicker opened it Nov. 5, 1857, just 50 years ago. He was a actor of weight and prominence. He was the best grave digger in Hamlet upon the stage. His daughter married Edwin Booth as his first wife. Booth's second wife was the daughter of Lawrence Barrett. For 50 years the theatre was the scene of some of the greatest historic triumphs of the century. The first season Charlotte Cushman, Charles Matthews, Eliza Logan, Edwin Booth, Joseph Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. John Drew and Mr. and Mrs. Florence appeared as stars. In 1872 the theatre burned down, but it was soon rebuilt. On October 6, 1884, John McCulloch, while playing "Spartacus," lost his memory and was led away from the stage a mental wreck. The list of the stars who have appeared upon the stage of McVicker's is interesting, for it recalls to the minds of the old theatregoers a long list of talent: Mary Anderson, Edwin Booth, Maurice Barrymore, Sarah Bernhardt, Dion Boucicault, Kyle Belieu, Jean Coquelin, W. H. Crane, Italo Campanini, Jesse Bartlett Davis, Minnie Maddern Fiske, Nat C. Goodwin, James A. Herne, DeWolf Hopper, Agnes Huntington, Henry Irving, Joseph Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean, Pauline Lucca, John McCulloch, Helena Modjeska, Clara Morris, Richard Mansfield, Adelaide Nielson, Adelina Patti, Tomasso Salvini, Ellen Terry and Rosina Vokes.

FARMERS WILL MEET AT FRANKLIN GROVE

HAMILTON TOWNSHIP CANNOT THEREFORE BORROW MONEY TO BUILD BRIDGE.

LONG LIST OF PREMIUMS READY

Because Bridge Is Out of Commission—Peculiar Situation Confronts the People.

Harmon, Ill., Nov. 29.—To straighten out a tangle on rural route No. 3, Inspector Frank Nevins was sent here by the postoffice department on last Monday.

Ever since the high waters of last June the bridge across Green river five miles south and about a hundred rods west of Harmon, has been out of commission. Part of the time Rural Carrier McCormick has been going through a field to make his delivery. At other times he has served a small part of his route only every other day on account of this bridge being out. The department was informed of the condition of things, hence the visit of the inspector.

In order to build a new bridge at this place, the old one being only about half long enough, an election to vote bonds was held on the 5th of last month. The ballots were prepared in the usual way, the voter having his choice of voting for or against the proposition to borrow money for bridge purposes, with the usual square at the right in which the voter could indicate his preference. One voter, evidently intending to vote for the proposition, placed an X to the right, but touching the square. A second, instead of placing an X in the square indicating an affirmative vote, wrote the word "yes" to the right of the square. Still another wrote the word "for" to the right of the affirmative square. Had these three votes been counted the proposition to borrow money would have been won by one vote.

The election judges, fearing that because of the irregularity of these three ballots some doubt might be cast upon the legality of the election authorizing the bond issue, threw them out, the vote then standing 15 for the proposition to 17 against. Of course, and these three votes being counted the proposition would have carried by a majority of one.

Considerable bad feeling has been engendered by this matter. The highway commissioners were brought in to the matter and talk of compelling them to keep the roads open in order to hold the mail route has been indulged in. But Hamilton township has no money to build this bridge and the proposition to borrow was turned down, so what could the poor men do?

The matter has, as a result of the inspector's visit, been temporarily patched up by an agreement with the owner of the land bordering for about a half mile on the east bank of Green river for the purchase of a temporary right of way, which arrangement will cause considerable inconvenience, but is probably the best that can be done.

It may be, as another result of the inspector's visit, that the length of two of the routes will be slightly changed.

Carrier McCormick received his new Light Running mail wagon Monday evening and will use it the first cold day. All of the carriers here are now equipped with first class mail wagons of the Light Running variety. These closed wagons with heaters installed rob riding in the winter storms of its hardships and makes a trip on the coldest day much like sitting by the stove at home.

AS OTHERS THINK

Everyone in Dixon Has a Right to His Own Opinion.

While everyone has a right to his own opinion, yet it is wise to always consider what others think and profit by their experience. Nothing makes life so miserable, or interferes so widely with the usefulness of the average American, as indigestion, and it is well for us to give fair consideration to what others think about this remarkable affliction.

Rowland Bros. are positive that in Mi-na stomach tablets they have an absolute cure for indigestion and the many disagreeable symptoms that follow this disease such as distress after eating, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, flatulence, nervousness and debility.

Their action in selling Mi-na on a guarantee to refund the money unless it cures, shows plainly their belief in the value of this remedy. They take all the risk, and there will be no charge whatever for Mi-na unless you are satisfied that it has relieved you of indigestion.

A FATAL MISTAKE.

Read what a Dixon citizen says:

George Bennett of 511 First St., Dixon, Ill., says: "For about ten years I was troubled with a very weak back. I had not paid much attention to it, although it bothered me considerably in the mornings when I got out of bed. At the end of that time it commenced to get very much worse and I became alarmed. I consulted my physician, who told me I had kidney trouble. He gave me medicines and plasters, but the pains and aches across my back and loins kept getting worse instead of better until I was in a very bad condition, being unable to lift anything, unable to sleep at nights and very tired in the mornings. In conversation with an acquaintance he advised me very strongly to get some Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so at Leake Bros' drug store. I took them according to the directions and can conscientiously say that they cured me. After taking them a short time my aches and pains left me and I was once more able to enjoy my rest at night. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me entirely and I can recommend them highly to others troubled as I was."

The great majority of men and woman at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that torturous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of deranged function of the kidneys which have become clogged and sluggish, failing in their duty of sifting and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

The bladder, however, causes the old folks the most annoyance, especially at night and early morning.

A noted authority in a recent article stated that he has wonderful success with the old-time "vegetable treatment." "Of sixteen cases of bladder troubles and rheumatism which have been treated with this treatment only one very complicated case failed to fully yield to its remarkable influence. It is the most harmless treatment I have ever found to clean the system of rheumatic poisons; remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system."

What he terms "old vegetable treatment" consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also drink plenty of water.

This prescription, though simple, is always effective in the diseases and afflictions of the kidneys and bladder.

A KNIGHT FOR A DAY.

Local playgoers have a treat in store for them in "A Knight for a Day," the new successful musical comedy from the pen of Messrs. Hubbell and Smith, the clever authors of "Fantana" and "Mexicana," whose efforts have met with the greatest favor wherever they have been presented. By its amazing popularity in Chicago, where it was first produced at the Whitney opera house and has enjoyed so long and successful a run, "A Knight for a Day" has proved itself a musical comedy of extraordinary merit. The opening scene of the play is laid in Evanston, Ill., and shows the campus of the Northwestern University in the foreground, while in the distance can be seen the college buildings. The second act takes place in the Island of Corsica. There is a good, intelligible plot running through the play, interspersed with good, wholesome comedy. There are sixty people employed in the production, including the famous American Beauty Chorus and also the "Kute Kittens," who are a lot of little dancers in the play. The production is under the management of Mr. B. C. Whitney, who has given it a complete equipment and a splendid cast for its interpretation. Some of the principal members of the cast are Felix Fantus, Leonie Pam, Carolyn Lillia, Laura Osborne, Gertrude Phelps, Edward Carleton, Harvey Austin, Russel Lennon, John Jex and Charles Mast. The attraction is booked for presentation here at the Dixon opera house on Monday, Dec. 2nd.

The way to get rid of a cold, whether it be a "bad cold" or just a little one, is to get it out of your system in through the bowels. Nearly all Cough Cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts gently on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Harm in Roentgen Rays. According to a Danish medical journal the Roentgen rays were recently used upon a boy 5 years old, who was treated in hospital for a disease of the hair. After 25 applications of the rays the lad was sent home cured. But whereas his nature had previously been bright and intelligent, now he became absent-minded and unreliable, and was sent back to the hospital. He has been for some time since under medical observation, and the pronouncement of the doctors attending the case is that the Roentgen rays can easily penetrate the thin scalp of a child and have an undesirable influence on the brain.

Life's Sails.

Some day when you go down to the shore of a large body of water, make a little study of the sailing vessels you see. Of course the wind blows in the same direction over every part of the water, but you'll notice that some vessels go one way and some another. This because the sails are set in different ways. Set your life sails—your ideals, purposes, estimates of what is most important to you—in one way, and life's experiences will send you on the rocks of destruction. Set them in a different way, and the same experiences will send you into the harbor of heaven.—Wellspring.

NATURE PROVIDES FOR SICK WOMEN

a more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value. During its record of more than thirty years, its long list of actual cures of those serious ills peculiar to women, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded person and every thinking woman.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful functions, weakness, displacements, ulceration or inflammation, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

No other remedy in the country has such a record of cures of female ills, and thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound and what it has done for them.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. For twenty-five years she has been advising sick women free of charge. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and as her assistant for years before her decease advised under her immediate direction. Address, Lynn, Mass.

The Sixtieth Congress

PROBLEMS OF NOTE THAT WILL ENGAGE THE ATTENTION OF OUR STATESMEN.

Excellent Facilities Provided For National Legislators So That They May Work Harder and With More Ease—Fifty Per Cent
Raise in Salaries—Luxurious Marble Palaces For Use of Congressmen and Senators—Striking Difference Between the New and the Old Washington.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

It ought to be easy for the Sixtieth congress to work hard. In the first place, all members of this congress, both houses, get $7,500 a year, a raise of 50 per cent in salary. That should help some toward a cheerful working spirit. In the next place, each member of the house of representatives, 391 in all, within a few weeks after the opening of the new congress will have at his disposal a private office in the magnificent new house annex which Uncle Sam has built for the use of the lawmakers. By this time next year a correspondingly magnificent senate annex will be finished for the use of senators. If members of congress cannot work harder with more ease than heretofore in view of the luxuries with which the government is surrounding them, then their constituents should investigate.

In the new house annex there are 410 rooms. Each representative will have his own chamber, fitted with fine mahogany furniture. There will be a big, statesmanlike desk for Mr. Congressman, a commodious desk for the clerk supplied and salaried by the government to each member, a center table for copies of the home paper, the Congressional Record and other choice literature and a typewriter desk. The congressional shoe leather will tread tached to his suit of rooms. Each senator will have a room and his secretary another.

Veteran members of congress, like Senator Allison of Iowa, who has worn the toga for nearly thirty-five years and was a member of the lower house for eight years before he became a senator, find the Washington of today vastly different from that of thirty to forty years ago. In fact, it is practically a new Washington. Up to civil war time and for a few years beyond Washington was not a pretty place. It was muddy, miasmatic, malarious and many other unpleasant things. The venerable father of President Millard Fillmore visited his son in the early fifties when Millard lived in the White House. The old man stayed around there only a few days. When he announced his intention to return to his home in Buffalo somebody remarked that he should stay longer.

"No, sir," said the president's father, "I'm going home. I don't like it here. It isn't a good place to live. It isn't a good place for Millard. I wish he was at home in Buffalo."

World's Most Beautiful City.

Many of the streets of the Capital City were much below grade in those days. When it rained they became mudholes. The town looked quite too these problems, which has grown up altogether since the war between the states. Following the peace of Appomattox began what may be termed the corporate era in American history, the upbuilding of great enterprises and the gradual concentration of industrial exploitation by consolidating these great businesses into Goliaths which have come to be called "trusts." Many political Davids now seek to slay these giants or force them to be good. President Roosevelt having made the regulation of corporate activities one of the chief affairs of his administration, with persons of all political beliefs in his following, it is not to be doubted that the Sixtieth congress will give considerable attention to the trusts. Senator McCumber of North Dakota prepared several weeks ago a bill which proposes to require a federal license for corporations engaged in interstate business.

Senator Beveridge of Indiana also prepared in advance of the opening of congress a bill to provide an inheritance tax. These two measures, it will be remembered, have been advocated by President Roosevelt. It is safe to predict that they will be among the most important matters of discussion in the new congress.

An American Problem.

Vast private fortunes in America have grown up since the civil war. There were no enormously wealthy men prior to that struggle. Old Commodore Vanderbilt's $10,000,000 was the largest private fortune in the United States sixty years ago. Now a multimillionaire is such an ordinary sight on the streets of many American cities that he attracts little more attention than the average citizen, while several men hold possessions exceeding $100,000,000 each. Thus the inheritance tax, which in some European countries has been required by law for many years, has become an American problem.

When Charles Sumner, a young man of forty, entered the United States senate, in 1851, the veteran Thomas H. Benton of Missouri in his pompous manner greeted the new senator with the remark that he had come to the senate too late, that all the great men were dead and all the great questions were settled. Yet Mr. Sumner and his colleagues found great questions to settle, so great that they had to be submitted to the arbitration of the sword. Now, nearly half a century after the decision was reached that these states form one great and powerful nation, new problems for statesmanship to solve have arisen, apparently of importance not less than were those of the time of Benton and that of Sumner immediately following. Several of these problems will engage the attention of the Sixtieth congress.

John G. Whittier thought James G. Blaine a greater man than Henry Clay. It is quite probable that there are in congress now men as great in mental caliber, in eloquence and in patriotism as were the Websters, the Clays, the Calhouns, the Bentons, the Sumners, the Blaines of other days, but there is an excellent reason why these men do not stand forth like brilliant beacon lights as did the half dozen statesmen mentioned. The general standard of ability and learning has been raised since the Bentonian days, so that the few leaders are not so conspicuous.

Nearly Everything Changed.

The development of the city of Washington is typical of the growth of the nation. In the past half century the United States has changed so vastly that Daniel Webster, who declared that all the country west of the Rockies was and must forever remain a worthless wilderness, would not recognize this as his native land should he be permitted to return and take a transcontinental trip. About the only thing in Washington which Webster would recognize is the portico of the White House. Nearly everything else has changed.

These changes and developments have brought about the great new problems which this congress will discuss. One of the highly important new propositions is that of the restoration and improvement of inland waterways. President Roosevelt has promised to advocate the creation of a deep waterway from the great lakes to the gulf, and it is probable that this matter will receive attention from the incoming congress. It has a bearing upon the railroad rate problem, by the way. Congress, it is held by some, has a chance to kill two big birds with one stone by putting the rivers in competition with the railroads in the carrying of freight. The rates, it is believed, will be reduced, and the surplus products of many states now suffering for lack of transportation facilities will be moved promptly.

Another little matter which would make the shade of any statesman prior to 1869 corrugate with amazement is to be handled by this congress. An appropriation will be requested for a war balloon or airship fleet.

Truly the world moves, particularly the part of the world that surrounds Washington, and we cannot censure Uncle Sam for giving his legislators better facilities for doing their work.

Christmas Rites.

For our Christmas Rites
Bring the great oak bough
That shall fling brightingle lights
From its ruddy soul!
And the holly twine
With the ivy vine.

Say a prayer for love
Ere the feasters sit!
(With the mistletoe above
This were surely fit)
Nor forgotten be Samite charity!

Let peace o'er us brood,
And hark round us rule!
May these fond beatitudes
To the hours of Yule
Throughout all the earth
Of God's spacious earth!

REID AS AN OPTIMIST

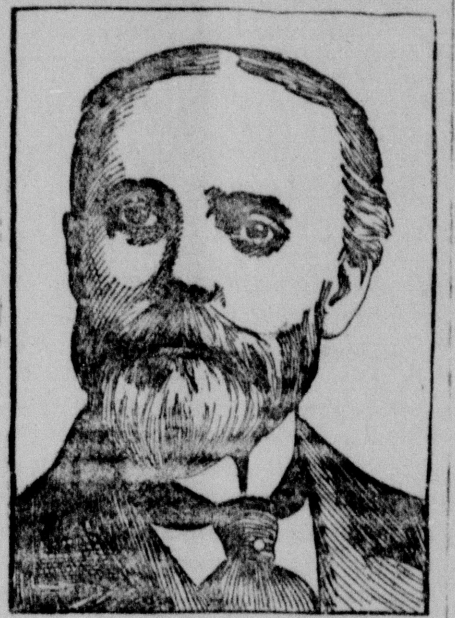

Our Ambassador at London Talks
at the American Society Thanksgiving Dinner.

SAYS WERE IN A BIT OF A FIX

But We'll Soon Get Over It and Prosper
More Than Ever.

Taft Celebrates En Route to St. Petersburg—Hurrying Home—Parkhurst Speaks for
"In God We Trust."

London, Nov. 29.—Whitelaw Reid the United States ambassador, spoke optimistically of the financial outlook, and Field Marshal Sir George Stuart White eulogized President Roosevelt in the warmest terms at the Thanksgiving dinner of the American society. Ambassador Reid sat at the right of the chairman at the table of honor, and Mrs. Reid sat at his left. Others at this table besides the speakers included the Marquis and Marchioness of Tweeddale.

WHITELAW REID.

Sir Ernest Cassel; Robert J. Wynne, the United States consul general at London, and Mrs. Wynne; J. J. Van Allen; Captain Sydney Clemen, military attaché of the United States embassy, and Mrs. Clemen; Isaac Seligman; Richard A. Westcott, deputy United States consul general; Sir Joseph and Lady Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon Selfridge. Reid's speech was received with great enthusiasm. He said in part:

Are We Downhearted? No!

"Some one said to me as I was starting for this dinner: 'You will have to be a Mark Tapley tonight, cheerful under difficulties.' That was only an exaggerated way of saying that we will have to be American, as usual. Nothing could be more un-American than to be downcast over temporary discouragements, or to despair of the republic because some of our people, unhappily, have lost their money almost as fast as they had made it. We have seen such things before, and it was worse when the country was not half so big or half so rich as it is now, and we have not forgotten how we came out of them."

Reminds Him of a Motto.

Continuing Reid said he was reminded of a motto he had once seen on a sun dial: "Transit nubes manet coelum," which freely translated means "We are in a bit of a fix, but we shall soon be out of it again." "When the clouds roll by," Reid then said, "it will be seen that we still have the country that Providence gave us; that we still have a people, and that we still have the boundless opportunities which after every reverse in the past have invariably speedily lifted us higher and yet higher. Given these, what American fears the result?"

TAFT IS HURRYING HOME

En Route He Engages in Festivity on Thanksgiving Day.

Ufa, European Russia, Nov. 29.—On board the train bearing Secretary Taft and his party to Moscow toasts were drunk to President Roosevelt and Emperor Nicholas. In honor of Thanksgiving the Russian passengers presented an elaborate cake to the secretary, bearing Russian and United States flags. In responding to the presentation speech Secretary Taft said that he was impressed with the resources and fertility of Siberia and the appearance and character of the people. He prophesied a future development for Siberia as great as and similar to that of the western states of the United States, and believed that it would become the leading section of the country in agriculture.

Secretary Taft was toasted as the next president of the United States, and said he accepted the toast in behalf of whoever may be elected.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—As a result of the fact that Washington has called Secretary Taft requesting him to hasten his return to the United States the secretary, who is due at Moscow tomorrow, has sent a telegram to Montgomery Schuyler, Jr., the United States charge d'affaires, asking him if possible to arrange the audience with Emperor Nicholas so as to enable Taft to leave St. Petersburg the afternoon of Dec. 4. Instead of the night of Dec. 5, as provided for in the original schedule, Taft says that he must catch the steamer President Grant, which will sail from Hamburg Dec. 7.

Law Should Protect All.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Chief Justice J. Brewer, of the supreme court of the United States, spoke at the Mount Pleasant Congregational church in this city, "High and low, rich and poor," he declared, "should be protected. We can never come to the full measure of that truth so long as we permit any group of financiers, any persons and corporations, to crush the individual; nor can we allow any labor organization to dictate any course we should follow."

HANDS OFF "IN GOD WE TRUST"

Rev. Parkhurst Makes Some Remarks in Behalf of the Motto.

New York, Nov. 29.—During the course of his Thanksgiving sermon at the Madison Square Presbyterian church Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst said that while "Evidences that we are nationally religious do not require to be specially conspicuous we resent any movement in the line of repealing any of those evidences that are suggestive to us of the divine foundation upon which as a people we rest."

"That it might not be wise to impute any new intimation of our 'trust in God' may well be. But it is another thing to efface such suggestions as are already in force." Dr. Robert S. MacArthur, at the Calvary Baptist church, preached a sermon on world politics, and as a climax nominated Governor Hughes as candidate for the presidency in 1908. Incidentally he lauded President Roosevelt's policies.

JEWS AND CHRISTIANS UNITE

First Time in New England They Join in Thanksgiving Services.

Boston, Nov. 29.—For the first time in the history of New England Jews and Christians united in worship in a synagogue, at the Temple Adath Israel. The temple was fairly well filled, there being a predominance of Jewish people. Rabbi Charles Fleischer conducted the service.

Rev. Thomas Van Ness, of the Second church, Congregationalist-Unitarian, the members of which gathered in the temple to worship with the Jews, preached the sermon. Prayers were offered by both Rabbi Fleischer and Dr. Van Ness at which both Hebrews and Unitarians stood with bowed heads.

He Attacks Social Vices.

New Orleans, Nov. 29.—In his Thanksgiving day sermon here at Trinity Protestant Episcopal church the rector, Rev. Dr. Beverly D. Warner, inaugurated a crusade against racing in Louisiana, declaring that it is ruining the morals of her citizens, and that there should be no juggling with the issue. Race track gambling, miscegenation by prominent New Orleans men and performances which he characterized as "vile and lewd," were the subjects of his sermon.

FORGIVES HIS ERRING WIFE

Man She Elope with Shot Her, and Her Husband Will Take Her Back.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 29.—Ira Walker, husband of Mrs. Minnie Walker, shot last Wednesday by Hilbert Friend, with whom she had eloped from Leighton, Pa., visited his wife. Walker came from Leighton with Rev. Jackson Everett, his father-in-law. They went directly to the hospital and asked to see the injured woman. The three remained together several hours.

"I know all now and I have forgiven everything," the husband said. The girl's father said: "I am sure that everything will be well from this time on."

"I'm so glad; I'm so glad," the wounded wife repeated when her husband and father forgave her.

REV. CAMPBELL'S FAITH

Further Announcement Thereof Provokes Angry Interruptions from His Congregation.

London, Nov. 29.—Rev. R. J. Campbell, pastor of the City Temple, provoked angry interruptions from his congregation while preaching in the temple. He asked his hearers if they really believed the story of Christ feeding the multitude in his literal sense. "The feeding of the multitude was not a feeding of the body, but a feeding of the soul with the bread of life," he said.

"It is a beautiful symbol, but the beauty is destroyed and the teaching ruined when it is sought to reduce it to a physical plane." The clergyman was here interrupted by cries of "No," but he asked to be allowed to continue, and his request was granted.

Chicago League Branching Out.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—The Chicago Law and Order League has invoked the aid of police officials in nineteen of the larger cities of the United States for its campaign against the Sunday saloon. Telegrams have been sent to the officials asking whether Sunday closing is enforced in their communities. It is planned to use these replies at a big mass meeting.

Murder in the Second Degree.

Racine, Wis., Nov. 29.—William Dillon, an ex-saloonkeeper, has been found guilty of murder in the second degree, he having shot and killed Jacob Best, Jr., of Milwaukee, on March 27 last, during a quarrel which started through an attempt of young Best to collect a bill.

Mistakes His Brother for a Turkey.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 29.—While turkey hunting near John Hartly was mistaken for a turkey in the brush and was shot and killed by his brother Edgar.

AWFUL CREATURE WAS NINETY FEET LONG

Recent Growsome Experience of a Chicago Man Is Sample of a Series of Such Cases.

During L. T. Cooper's recent visit to Chicago, where his new preparation and theory created the usual sensation many hundreds of people brought enormous internal parasites to the young man, which had left the system after taking his medicine.

Among these people was Mr. Emil Winkler, who brought to Cooper a tapeworm that proved to be over ninety feet in length. Mr. Winkler, who resides at 182 East Ohio Street Chicago, had this to say of his experience: "For five years I have had severe headaches, and any food that I would eat would nauseate me. I would have had dreams almost every night; dizzy spells would compel me to quit work. Black spots would appear before my eyes when stooping over and rising quickly. I would feel tired most of the time; in fact, I had no life in me to speak of for the last five years. I tried various treatments, and one physician in St. Louis was recommended to me, and I was under his treatment some time, but as usual I obtained no relief.

"So many people asked me to try Cooper's preparation that I decided to do so, and after using it for a few days, this awful thing passed from my system. I feel much better already, and I want to say right here that I thank Mr. Cooper a hundred times for what his medicine has done for me. I would not take $5,000 and have that thing back in my system again."

Mr. Winkler is a fair sample of the experience of many during Cooper's stay in Chicago, and this no doubt helped to account for the enormous sale of the Cooper preparation in this city and others, recently visited by the young man.

We sell and will be pleased to explain the Cooper preparation.—C. M. Campbell & Son.

DECEIVED MERCHANT AND TOOK GOODS

WOMAN GAVE A FALSE NAME TO SECURE CREDIT AT A COUNTRY STORE.

PROGRAM IN HARMON SCHOOLS

Thanksgiving Exercises Conducted by Intermediate and Primary Departments—Personals.

Harmon, Ill., Nov. 29.—A few days ago a woman accompanied by several children drove in front of a country store not a thousand miles from Harmon. The oldest boy was sent into the store and wanted a sack of flour and a hundred pounds of sugar on credit. On the merchant coming to the door to speak to the occupant of the rig, the woman said she had been away from home for a couple of weeks and was just returning, giving as her cognomen the name of a well-to-do family living a few miles from the burg. As the person whose name was given was worthy of credit, the goods were loaded into the rig and the woman and children drove away. The man to whom the goods were charged usually trades at one of the larger cities in this vicinity and was not well known to the merchant on that account.

A short time thereafter a bill for the sugar and flour was presented to the party to whom they were charged, but payment was refused because the goods had never been received.

In the meantime, the merchant is out the price of a sack of flour and a hundred pounds of sugar which no doubt have been enjoyed by the woman who worked the con game.

Thanksgiving in the Schools.

As pretty and interesting a program as one could wish to see was that rendered by the pupils of the intermediate and primary departments of the Harmon schools. The entertainment consisted of recitations, drills and songs, and to the teachers, Misses Lenora Tehan and Tessie Garland, much credit is due for the conscientious and patient care bestowed in training the little ones.

Personalities.

Frank O'Brien sr. was a Dixon bus iness visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna and son Roy of Whiteside county were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Roche the latter part of last week.

H. J. Brill was in Dixon on business Tuesday.

A. A. Conner, who for the past week was seriously ill with the quinsy, is much improved.

Sheriff Tourtellott and Assistant Cates Attorney Harry Edwards visited Harmon Monday.

F. H. Geyer of Rock Falls was in the village on business Tuesday.

Misses Nellie A. Long, Mary Durr, and Nellie Blackburn and Messrs. Janson Bolander, Wright Driebel, Clance Durr and Edward Ryan went to West Brooklyn Tuesday evening to attend the dance.

The concrete abutments and wings for the Dowd bridge were finished Wednesday. Those who have watched the construction of the foundations of this bridge are of the opinion that the work under the supervision of S. Bolander has been well done.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Scanlon were the guests of Sterling friends Tuesday.

Mrs. George Muir of Soperville; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Willsted of Walnut, Misses Ivy Mills, Mattie Hassell and Ethel Stickle and Messrs. Glenn Renner and Fred Snyder, all of Deer Grove, were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Willsted Sunday.

Rural Carrier Swab was the recipient of a nice fat duck contributed by one of his patrons as a Thanksgiving gift.

Samuel Manning had business in Dixon Wednesday.

An extra Burlington train containing officials of the road made a trip Wednesday as far west as the east village limits.

Several farmers have finished corn husking. A. A. McKeel reports a yield of over 60 bushels to the acre. T. F. Durr, while not through picking, reports a yield of 45 bushels. Others report from 25 to 35 bushels.

The case of J. P. McWilliams vs. C. F. Potter, set for trial Wednesday, was continued by agreement between the attorneys to next Tuesday at 1 p. m.

W. H. Kolchauer Wednesday moved his household goods from Dixon to the W. H. Kugler house at the northeast corner of Main and Second streets. He will assist in the blacksmith shop during the winter.

NEWS FROM LAMOILLE.

LaMoille, Ill., Nov. 29.—A grand ball was given in the opera house last evening.

Mrs. Reder of Earlville spent last Sunday with Mrs. Henry Chambers. Samuel Baird sr. is ill.

Chas. King has purchased the I. S. Bash farm.

Mrs. C. P. Stafford has been visiting in Mt. Morris.

Mrs. Holbrook of Polo is visiting friends here.

D. Benson, who recently underwent an operation on his eye, is recovering nicely.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

Many men and women catch colds at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if Foly's Honey and Tar is taken, it will break up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Refuse any but the genuine in yellow package. Rowland Bros.

velvety rugs when it is not reposing on mahogany desk slides.

Down in the capacious basement is a swimming pool wherein Mr. Congressman may lave his body, thus insuring clean politics. Tub baths also are provided. There is a handsome restaurant for representatives only. There is no bar. Whisky is not considered a necessary of official life.

Subway Train For His Use.

This splendid marble palace is one block away from the capitol, but Mr. Congressman need not walk. Underneath the asphalted plaza surrounding the capitol has been constructed a subway tunnel, brilliantly lighted, through which a train of six cars, each sixteen feet long, operated by electricity, will run from the capitol to the annex in one minute and back again at the same speed. The congressman has no fare to pay. He can step from the house of representatives into an elevator, descend to the basement of the capitol, be whisked through the subway to his private office, pick up the papers he forgot and be back in his seat in a matter of three or four minutes.

But if Mr. Congressman desires the privacy of his own office when the house is in session and yet wishes to hear what is going on in that chamber, he may cross his feet over his mahogany, place to his ear a contrivance called a dictograph, or something of that sort, and listen to the commands of Speaker Cannon and the eloquence of the gentleman from Indiana or Arkansas, shutting off the sound when it doesn't suit him.

When the senate annex is completed next year Mr. Senator may ride to his private suite in a similar subway car. As there are only ninety-two senators and the senate annex is a twin brother to the house annex, each upper house man will have a private bathroom at-shabby for a great nation's capital. When General Grant became president he began a campaign against mosquitoes and malaria, mud and microbes. He appointed Alexander R. Shepherd chairman of the board of public works, and Mr. Shepherd made Washington over. The streets were raised to the proper level, paved, parked and otherwise prettified. Now Washington is said to be the most beautiful city in the world. Since the civil war wings have been added to the capitol, making it the largest marble edifice on earth. It is also accounted the most beautiful architecturally. Next to the capitol in marble magnificence and mural elegance is the library of congress, completed about ten years ago. Interiors this structure is said by artists to be the most beautiful on the globe.

Washington has advanced socially in the past sixty years to keep pace with its material progress. Mrs. Zachary Taylor, the first lady of the land during the few months of her husband's presidency, used to sit in her room in the White House knitting yarn socks and, it is said, occasionally smoking her pipe. About the same period Senator Sam Houston of Texas was wont to recline in his senatorial chair, with his feet upon his senatorial desk, while his secretary supplied him with the obliging sergeant-at-arms. Senators of today do not whistle in the senate chamber, nor do White House ladies smoke. The personal habits of Washingtonians have improved too. At General Grant's first inaugural ball Horace Greeley got as mad as a hornet because some guest who departed earlier carried away his hat and coat. A number of others, it is recorded, helped themselves to the best hats and coats in the cloakroom on that occasion.

With the new Washington have come new problems of statesmanship. The regulation of corporations is one of

After all, the most natural beauty in the world is honesty and moral truth; for all beauty is truth. True features make the beauty of the face, and true proportions the beauty of architecture, as true measures that of harmony and music. In poetry, which is all fable, truth still is the perfection.

The Lee County Bar association has presented the portraits of three deceased judges, to be hung in the court house at Dixon. Addresses were made by prominent members of the bar, and the virtues of the departed ones were recalled in fitting language. And by and by that court house will be filled to overflowing with the portraits of the judges who have sat upon their bench their little while and then gone their way into the undiscovered country. And the very names of the men who are there depicted on canvas will have been forgotten. But here and there a peculiarly appropriate saying, perhaps a witty story, a curious incident, or a decision where the law was ignored in the interests of mercy and humanity, will preserve one or the other, and his name will be remembered and will be spoken with pride, even though his lineaments be faded from the canvas. It is not those who come after us, we ourselves must be our monument builders—Burlington Hawkeye.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN.
Preaching service both morning and evening at the Lutheran church Sunday. In the morning at 11 o'clock the pastor will take for his theme, "The Ideal Christian." In the evening at 7:30 the subject will be "The Fifth Commandment." Some of the thoughts on the great moral law, formerly overlooked or never known, to many, will undoubtedly be given. This awful sin is more far reaching according to God's word, than many Christian people even suppose. A most cordial invitation is extended to all.

DOINGS IN THE

Y. M. C. A. DEPARTMENTS

BUSINESS MEN'S BASEBALL.

In the business men's baseball game played Monday afternoon, the Sox under the direction of E. B. Raymond met an awful defeat at the hands of Herbert Morris' Cubs, the score being 17 to 1. The inability of the Raymond gang to land on the curves of Laing, the Cubs' pitcher, accounts mainly for the defeat.

Harlan played a fine game at short stop.

A. P. Armington featured his work with a sensational one-handed stop.

E. P. Swanton denoted his ability to be there when the warm ones happened along, a particularly warm one getting there before Swanton got away.

The playing of H. V. Baldwin on first base equalled anything ever seen on the local diamond.

V. G. Mays was there with his mighty stick and beat out some long hits.

D. C. Owens, the phenomenal third baseman of the Sox, was compelled, owing to serious injuries to his ribs, to sit uncomfortably on the side lines. He proved a good coacher, however.

Juniors' Basketball.
Tuesday afternoon in the Juniors' basketball league, the Blackburns defeated the Kehrs by a score of 6 to 3, and the Slothowers defeated the Bowers by a score of 3 to 4. Both games were warmly contested.

The Basketball Squad.

The work of the basketball team at the Y. M. C. A. is coming along in fine shape and Director Birch is greatly pleased over the work of the squad. There are now ten men out working for places on the team, and it is probable that a championship winning aggregation will be turned out this year. The first game will be played on Monday, Dec. 10, at Polo against the Polo team. The suits for the team have been received at the association rooms, and are very pretty. The body of the suit is plain white, and blue is used in the trimming.

Following are the candidates in the squad which is working daily: McManus, Drummond, Miller, Armstrong, Bales, Woodruff, Warner, Gilton, Barry, Roberts.

RETURNED THANKS FOR BLESSINGS

UNION SERVICE OF PRAISE WAS HELD ON THANKSGIVING MORNING.

REV. HARLAN MADE THE ADDRESS

Influence of Christianity Upon the National Affairs—Factor in Civilization.

The evangelical churches of Dixon were united Thanksgiving morning in praise and worship. A good congregation was present. Prayer was offered by Rev. Heyl, who expressed the deepest thanksgiving of the audience for the love of God which has made and preserved us as a nation and for the riches of his bounty to us as individuals.

The 107th psalm was read by Rev. Moore. The choir sang beautifully the anthem, "Oh, Lord, How Manifold," and there was a solo by Mrs. Sickels and a duet by Mrs. Sickels and Miss Harbaugh.

The annual Thanksgiving sermon was preached by Rev. Harlan, pastor of the Baptist church, who took as his text, Ps. 107: 1, 2. "Let the Redeemed of the Lord say so."

The cause for national thanksgiving was briefly mentioned, chiefly because into our institutions and life are the teachings and principles of Jesus Christ which give promise of permanency and which bring us best blessings. Reference was made to the proposed action of the board of revision in the New York schools to take all reference to Jesus Christ from the school books. This was characterized as the work of galvanized foreigners who do not appreciate the hospitality and shelter our country has given them and who are dangerous to institutions. Yet it is only an eddy in the current as God has caused all things to be headed up in Christ and He is humanity's leader and the main sweep of civilization is led by Him.

As individuals we all have cause for thanksgiving, for deliverance from poverty, from sickness, from conditions in which previous people lived, but especially for our redemption in Christ. Let the Redeemed of the Lord say so.

These deliverances cause gratitude which to be real must be voiced, and hence Thanksgiving is the expression of gratitude and follows a normal law of the soul. Worship and witnessing are the forms this expression takes; Christianity is a religion of song for it has something to tell. It is a religion of preaching and testimony and of duty, doing for it must render glorified praise and thanksgiving for large mercies received.

An offering of nearly $20 was taken for the poor and Rev. Peters led the closing prayer of this most helpful service.

BRIDGE BILLS NEARLY $40,000

WHITESIDE SUPERVISORS DIG INTO COUNTY PURSE TO PAY IMPROVEMENTS.

At the special meeting of the Whiteside county board of supervisors which will be held on Dec. 10, bills for bridge building aggregating $39,000 will be presented to the board for payment. Of the above sum there will be approximately $20,000 for the county's share for the construction of the Avenue G bridge at Sterling by the Penn Bridge company and $19,000 for fifteen bridges in other parts of the county. There is no provision now for the payment of the bridges, but it is expected that provisions will be made at the meeting of the board. The bills will be the heaviest that were ever presented to the board at a meeting.

The prisoners at the Lee county jail ate turkey yesterday.

Attorney Clyde Smith will deliver the address at the Elks memorial at LaSalle next Sunday afternoon.

Prin. J. J. Armstrong of the Compton schools, is here over the Thanksgiving vacation.

Justus Neighbour came home from LaGrange Wednesday evening for the Thanksgiving holiday with home folks.

GOOD GAME OF BALL PUT UP AT ATHLETIC PARK THURS-DAY AFTERNOON.

The failure of the Mt. Morris team to show up on the field at Athletic park yesterday afternoon was a great disappointment to the local fans who were counting on seeing the old timers get into action against a foe of long standing. When it was announced by Manager Dixon that Mt. Morris had canceled the game, it was believed for a time that there would be no game whatever, but with the assistance of a number of the high school football players, and a few of the alumni, a game was put on.

The contest that was pulled off was a very good one, and was as satisfactory to the fans as anyone could well expect. The game was featured by the playing of Ward Miller, Clarence Soper, Jimmie Law and Jake Snyder, and there were several spectacular and exciting plays pulled off.

The alumni-high school aggregation got away with the game by a score of 10 to 0, a safety and two field goals from the trusty toe of Clarence Soper being the points that were scored.

Soper's two drop kicks were beautiful, each of them, the last one being from a difficult angle in the face of a strong wind. Monte Bales, whose antics on the football field have often roused the fans to a high pitch of excitement, was handicapped in his work owing to a recent illness, but occasionally he showed the form of old, and demonstrated that he yet retains many of his capabilities.

Following is the lineup and summary:

Alumni-H. S.	re	Old Timers.
Brink	rt	Snyder
Schnellbach	rt	Goodman
Reynolds	rg	Nemo
Major	c	Smith
Nihil	lg	Ford
Hennessy	lt	Sullivan
Mason	le	Martin
Brenner	qb	Bales, Law
Soper	rbb	Covert
Miller	lhb	Cupp
Bovey	fb	Buchanan

Goal from field—Soper (2). Safety—Bales. Umpire—F. E. Birch. Field Judge—R. Harlan. Referee—J. J. Clancy. Time of Halves—20 minutes.

RED BRICK BOYS WON.

A sensational game of football was played between the boys of the seventh and eighth grades in the Schuler building, and the boys of the same grades in the Red Brick school yesterday. The Red Brick players numbered nine, while their opponents had an enlistment of but eight, yet the latter proved themselves the real bricks, and won out by a score of 35 to 33.

HIGH SCHOOL RESULTS

Oak Park high school laced a victory into University high yesterday afternoon at Marshall Field, Chicago, defeating the south side school by a score of 22 to 8, and thereby earning the Cook county high school championship. DeKalb trimmed Elgin 4 to 0, which is a remarkable feat for the wire makers to accomplish. Rockford trimmed Evansville, Wis., 28 to 16, and Dubuque beat Waterloo, 5 to 0.

CLASS PROVIDED A DINNER.

The eighth grade pupils sent a splendid Thanksgiving dinner to one of the poor families of the city.

"DANGER SIGNALS OF THE YOUTH"

WILL BE EVANGELIST HUNT'S
THEME AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH TONIGHT.

A FORECAST OF NEXT SUNDAY

Men's Meeting in Afternoon—Other Services—Results of the Work Is Shown.

"Danger Signals of Youth" will be Lawyer-Evangelist Hunt's subject at the Baptist church tonight. The Sunbeam chorus of fifty voices will sing some new pieces. Last night, Thanksgiving, a fine service was held in which the boys and girls sang with the adult chorus and made a splendid showing. Some decisions for Christ were made last night and the church is looking for a very helpful meeting tonight, as the spirit of the Lord is moving in their midst. Everybody will be welcome.

There is to be a mass meeting for men Sunday afternoon at 3:30 under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. A male chorus and a male quartet will sing. Mr. Hunt will have as his subject "Running Away From God." From indications last Sunday a fine meeting will be had this coming Sunday.

Mr. Hunt will address the Bible school briefly Sunday morning and will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Those whose hearts are in the meetings will pray and work for this glorious day.

A SERMON ON SUPERSTITION

WILL BE DELIVERED AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
ON SUNDAY NIGHT.

"The Opulent Church" will be the theme of the discourse at the West Side Congregational church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Reception of members and baptisms. All members and adherents expected.

At 7:30 p. m. a special sermon will be preached from "The Mar's Hill Proclamation." Witchcraft, ghosts, palmistry and other "black arts" will be dealt with. Come early and secure a good seat. Everybody welcome.

Sunday school and Bible classes at 9:45 a. m. Superintendent H. L. Bulla expects a full attendance. Young men and women should plan to attend President F. B. Virden's Bible class. Be on time.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30 p. m. H. C. Rose would like to see every member present.

Remember, the church is located one block southwest of Dixon college and is always cozy in the winter time.

Robert G. Moore, pastor.

MEMORIAL FOR MRS. BRUBAKER

WILL BE CONDUCTED AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
SUNDAY NIGHT.

Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church a memorial service will be held in memory of Mrs. A. J. Brubaker, whose death a year ago deprived that church of a faithful worker and devoted member of many years' standing. Miss Elizabeth Shaw and Mrs. E. C. Sickels will speak and a communion table will be presented to the church by Mr. Brubaker as a memorial for his wife.

Charles Bishop returned to Chicago this morning.

The C. D. Hazard family ate their Thanksgiving dinner at the L. B. Neighbour home.

David T. Marks returned to Chicago this morning after a Thanksgiving visit with his parents, Mr. and Frank Hollingsworth, the business manager for The Girl of the Sunny South company, was here Wednesday on business with Manager Chas. Eastman. The show will appear at the Dixon opera house next Wednesday night.

Major and Mrs. Downing, Dr. and Mrs. Z. W. Moss and George Downing went to Elburn, Ill., this morning to attend the funeral of a relative who died under an operation on Tuesday at the Chicago hospital. The deceased was the wife of Major Downing's nephew.

DEMENT TOWN DOINGS

7 a. m.—20 degrees above zero. Beautiful morning after the day, wasn't it!

Everybody reported on time this morning, none the worse for the day.

If there were many such days! The Illinois Central will change the time of several of its passenger trains next Sunday. The two Sunday passenger trains will be taken off and passenger train No. 131, which arrives here from the north about four o'clock in the afternoon, after Sunday will arrive here at about five o'clock. The changing of this train's time will be a great benefit to people having business in Freeport, it will give them an hour longer in that city. Amboy people will be benefited also, as it will give them an hour longer in Dixon.

The mayor of Gobbler's Knob was on time this morning.

John W. Aye of Clarion, Ia., is visiting his son, H. E. Aye.

The Irish Pawnbrokers left on the Sterling passenger this morning for Belvidere.

James and Richard dined at Sterling last evening.

Yardmaster John Clark of the Northwestern wishes it known that he and his switching crew had the honor of pulling the first car of cement away from the factory. Switch engine No. 494, Dan Fane at the throttle, Fireman J. Sheean with the shovel, and William Hogan, assistant to Clark, composed the crew that did the work. The crew made a special trip for the car. H. E. Aye, as bill clerk, also wishes it known that he had the honor of billing the first car of cement. The Illinois Central switching crew, whose duty it was to do the downtown business last Wednesday, was unable to bring the car because it was not ready.

Thank you! No. 16 was on time this morning.

There's another holiday coming. A local newspaper man acquired a touch of kleptomania last Saturday and inadvertently pinched some grape fruit from a local grocery store. After being apprised of his wrong doing the scribe dug up a quarter to pay for the damage.

Charles Erickson and friend Blitz were on the avenue yesterday. Everyone was glad to see Blitz, not meaning to slight C. J., however.

Woman's Club.
The Dixon Woman's club will meet in Macabee hall on Saturday, Nov. 30, at 2:30 p. m. A musicale will be given and there will be quotations from Longfellow. Each member may invite a friend.

Basket Social.
A basket social will be held this evening at the Kings school south of this city. A good program will be given. A conveyance will leave

Rowland's corner at 6:45 o'clock promptly.

Bucher-Morgan.
Bert H. Morgan of Franklin Grove and Miss Edith V. Bucher of Nachusa township were quietly married at the Lutheran parsonage in this city by Rev. Rutherford at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will reside in Franklin Grove.

Heckman-Bill.
Charles D. Bill of Taylor, township, Ogle county, and Miss Verda Heckman of the same place, were married at the Lutheran parsonage in this city by Rev. Rutherford Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Bill will reside on a farm recently purchased by the groom in Michigan.

Class 18, of the M. E. Sunday school, surprised one of their members, Mrs. C. D. Hazard, Tuesday evening before her departure for her home in Rock Island. They enjoyed a pleasant evening and left a reminder in the way of a present in silverware, all of which was seemingly appreciated by the hostess.

Sterling Couple Weds.
Allison Booker and Miss Nellie Whitmer, both of Sterling, were married at the Methodist parsonage in this city on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. F. D. Stone. Both young people are prominent socially in Sterling and their marriage here was planned as a surprise for their friends.

A Double Anniversary.
On Thursday evening, Nov. 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wolfe in North Dixon, were observed the anniversaries of the weddings of Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dial. A delightful supper was served about eight o'clock and the remainder of the evening was spent with music and games.

Friends present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Murray King, Miss Lena Hueln and Mrs. Frisbee of Chicago, Mrs. Florence Jaines and daughter, Miss Ruth Jaines, and Miss Tolla Stone of Polo. The guests departed at a late hour after an evening well spent, and congratulations and wishes for many returns of the day were extended to the entertainers.

Dixon Club Party.
One of the prettiest and most successful parties in the history of the Dixon club was held last evening at the club rooms in the Brown block, over one hundred people being present to enjoy the annual Thanksgiving feast. The club rooms were festively decorated and presented a very handsome appearance. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening and until two o'clock in the morning. Johnson's orchestra of this city furnished music for the occasion and was highly appreciated. There were a number of out of town guests present as guests of the club, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards of Pawpaw, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Schroeder of Racine, Wis., Harry Dutcher, Chicago; H. E. Betzenderfer, Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. Wilcox of Amboy, Miss Burt and Miss Bessie Schaffer of Johnstown, Pa.

Moats-McWethey.
Thomas McWethey and Miss Edith Moats of Palmyra were married at eight o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moats. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Miller, pastor of the Brethren church of this city. The home was very handsomely decorated with white and green. The young people were attended by Mr. William Spencer of Prairieville, and Miss Leo Kindig of South Dixon.

The bride was attired in a dress of light brown cashmere trimmed with white chiffon lace and wore a veil. She carried a bunch of white carnations.

After the wedding ceremony the guests, about sixty-five in number, partook of a bountiful wedding dinner.

Those attending from a distance were Mrs. Kern and daughter, from Leaf River, Mrs. Henry Moats and daughter from Mt. Morris, Mr. J. Wait and Miss Gilbert from Polo.

Those present from this city were W. W. Lehman and family, Rodney T. Ayres and wife, Mrs. Rebecca Ayres, Mrs. Minerva Ayres and Thomas Hulst and family.

Mr. and Mrs. McWethey will farm one of the William McGinnis farms on the River road.

Attorney and Mrs. Jarvis Dinsmore of Sterling were entertained on Thanksgiving day by Prof. and Mrs.

Justin L. Hartwell. In the evening Attorney Dinsmore delivered his lecture on Emerson and Lincoln at the People's church.

Merely Preparatory.
"I don't mind telling you," said the pretty girl confidentially, "that I want to take a thorough course in cooking in order to fit myself to be a good wife." "You are doing the right thing, my dear," said the matron in charge of the cooking school. "May I ask how soon you expect to be married?" "How should I know?" rejoined the pretty girl, daintily rolling up her sleeves. "I haven't found the man yet."

The Cutting Retort.
"You don't have to brag of success," declared the big woman when she had listened to the little woman's account of how well she was doing with her work; "it shows for itself." "And you don't have to tell outright of the decline of success once you have been successful," remarked the little woman, who had listened first to the big woman's talk; "it shows in the bitterness with which you complain of existing circumstances."

It Stops Itching

HEALS THE SKIN.

It is because Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment possesses in a remarkable degree the ability to stop itching and heal raw skin, that it has become known the world over as the most successful treatment for such diseases of the skin as eczema, and salt rheum.
Any one who is familiar with the life of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous Receipt Book author, knows that few physicians ever had such an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the most effective medical treatments, and nothing that the doctor ever put his name to has been so marvelously successful as

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

You can prove this absolutely in any case of eczema. After the first few applications the itching, stinging, itching sensations are relieved, and gradually and naturally the raw sores become smaller and smaller until they entirely disappear. 50 cts. a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N.Y.
Mr. Ed. Kenelly, Sr., Dannemora, N. Y., states:
"I was troubled with a severe form of eczema, itching so bad I could not sleep, but kept scratching all the time. Am pleased to state that Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment cured me, and I have had no recurrence of the trouble."

GOOD DEAL LIKE WAR

Some Incidents of the Athletic Field Carry Out the Idea Pretty Well.

TWO RIOTING FOOT BALL TEAMS

In One Case a Fence Comes Down, Injuring Many.

Marathon Road Race May Be the Death of One Contestant—Foot Ball Casualties Are Numerous.

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—Two foot ball games in this vicinity ended in general fights, and in one a board fence was broken down, injuring a score or more persons, one of them probably fatally and three others seriously. On a vacant lot in Allegheny 1,000 spectators gathered for a game between the Superior and the Davis Athletic clubs. Rooters for the Superiors started a march through the field. Friends of the other side sought to halt them, and a clash ensued. The struggling mass jammed into a high board fence and broke it down over their own heads.

Names of Those Injured.
The injured are: Thomas J. Burk, beaten with clubs and caught under fence, body bruised and spine injured, probably fatal; Charles Barry, head and back cut and bruised; Richard Atkinson, arms and legs crushed; James
A. Barrett, arms, legs and head cut and bruised; unknown foreigner accused of the first assault upon Barr, had his nose broken and was otherwise injured by the rioters before the fence fell. The police broke up the game just as real rioting was threatened.

Free Fight at McKeesport.
At McKeesport a considerable portion of a crowd of 2,500 wrangled and fought through the first half of a game between the Duquesne and the Olympics, rivals for a number of years, at Cyclos park. Near the end of the game, with the score 0 to 0, the players themselves became involved in a pitched battle over a decision, and the police stopped the game. No one was seriously hurt, but many faces were disfigured.

MANY CASUALTIES REPORTED

Marathon Road Race Is Notable—Hurt
at Foot Ball Games.

New York, Nov. 29.—A Marathon road race held at Yonkers left many casualties in its wake. G. C. Cunnham, of this city, collapsed after running seventeen miles. He was removed to a hospital, where he is still unconscious. It was said he might die. He is suffering from acute dilation of the heart. Five others of the runners collapsed and had to be treated by physicians before they could go to their homes. Six others failed to report at the finish, but it is thought that they gave up the race when exhausted and returned to their homes.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—Ray C. Van Orman, right-end of the Cornell foot ball team, is in the University of Pen-sylvania hospital suffering from slight concussion of the brain received in the game with Pennsylvania. Van Orman was rendered unconscious.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—Three men are in a hospital here suffering from severe injuries received in a foot ball game between Whitehall and Brides-burg, suburban teams. They are: Walter Eckly, concussion of the brain; F.
W. Swartz, dislocated shoulder and collar bone; Hugh Luchman, dislocated collar bone. They were members of the Bridesburg team and Whitehall won the game. Three victims of foot ball were treated at another hospital.
These were William Folger, head cut and shoulder dislocated; Frank Dear-love, broken leg, received in the same game, and Edwin Murray, broken arm and badly sprained foot.

At Roversford, near here, E. Bush sustained a broken leg while playing foot ball.

Knapp and Neill Avert Trouble.
St. Louis, Nov. 29.—An agreement has been reached between General Manager A. W. Sullivan, of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain system, and a committee representing the members of the firemen's union employed on the road. The settlement was effected by Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the interstate commerce commission, and Charles P. Neill, labor commissioner.

Bandmaster Sousa Very Ill.
Chicago, Nov. 29.—John Phillip Sousa, the noted bandmaster and composer, is seriously ill at the Auditorium hotel here from the effects of pneumonia contracted in Milwaukee two days ago. He was unable to conduct the concert given by his band here.

Died While a Photograph Played.
New York, Nov. 29.—Turning on the gas and a photograph at the same time, Mrs. Georgis Little, aged 35, committed suicide at her home to the strains of "In the Wild Woods Where the Blue Bells Grow," her favorite air. She was despondent because of ill health.

Mrs. McDonald Attempts Suicide.
Chicago, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Dora Mc-Donald, widow of M. C. McDonald, and who is under indictment for the alleged murder of Webster S. Gurnea, has developed symptoms of violent insanity, twice attempting to commit suicide at the home of her mother.

PRINCE KALANIANA'OLE HERE

He Is a Delegate from Hawaii to Congress—Wants Pearl Harbor Fortified.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Prince Jonah K. Kalaniana'ole, delegate to congress from the Hawaiian islands, has arrived here with his wife. The

PRINCE KALANIANA'OLE.

prince was decided in his views regarding the immediate policy which he intends to advocate regarding the treatment of the islands by the United States government.
He said that the first thing which he intended, as Hawaiian delegate, to urge upon congress was the pressing necessity for strongly fortifying Pearl harbor and strengthening it as a nava-base.

HERE'S ANOTHER WALKER

Did the Distance Between Richmond, Va., and New York, and Is 65
Years Old.

New York, Nov. 29.—James Penkhus says he has no idea of trying to walk Weston as a pedestrian, but he walked all the way from Richmond, Va., to New York just the same. Foot-sore, hungry, almost exhausted, he applied to the police for aid. When he was discharged from the farm on which he lived all his life Jenkins, who is a colored man and 65 years old, started for New York to find work.

That was a month ago. He had just a dollar when he left the farm, and he paid his last pennies to cross the Fort Lee ferry. He was a pitiful sight when he was arraigned in the night court and told his story. He was sent to Blackwell's island for six months for vagrancy.

BETTER THAN A HERO MEDAL

Young Woman Whose Life He Saved
Becomes the Wife of Detective Rubing.

New York, Nov. 29.—Although Defective Carl S. Rubing, of the New York police force, has never received a medal for bravery or for life saving he won a higher reward when a young woman whom he rescued from drowning two years ago became his wife.
While on his vacation at Spring Lake
N. J., two years ago Rubing, who is a strong swimmer, spent most of his time in the water.

One day while swimming he heard a woman scream, and went to her rescue.
He succeeded in getting her to land, more dead than alive. She was Miss Catherine Stuehlner, and also lived in New York. The acquaintance thus romantically begun culminated in the wedding.

Died on His Wedding Anniversary.
St. Paul, Nov. 29.—Louis Lockwood aged 43, died suddenly on his wedding anniversary of aneuria. He was a prominent architect and had erected many of St. Paul's finest buildings. He was a graduate of Oxford (England) university.

TOO MUCH CHURCH FOR A WIFE

She Consequently Wants a Divorce—
Illinois Manufacturers to Meet —Legislative Note.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Henry C. Kohl, a saloonkeeper at 807 West Ohio street held a Thanksgiving eve reception at his saloon, but it turned into an unexpected frost when three masked robbers entered the place and unkindly put Kohl and his four guests into the refrigerator, after they had lined them up against the wall and taken a total of $9 from the quintette. Then the uninvited guests took $18 from the cash register, ate up the delicious viands on the free lunch table, and washed them down with several dollars' worth of good things to drink.

Too Much Church for Her.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—John W. Heiser has been sued for divorce, and the complaint asks that his wife be given the custody of their three children. It appears from the complaint that whenever John wished to give the family
a treat he would lead them to a prayer meeting. Mrs. Heiser admits that it was thoughtful of John to be so careful of their spiritual welfare. Sometimes, when he was in good form and the time of the meetings would allow the arrangement of a more complicated schedule, she says, she and the children would be treated to a personally conducted tour, embracing from two to five churches.

Policeman Has a Close Call.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Wearied by an all day vigil watching cash in City Treasurer Traeger's office in the city hall Patrolman Frank McKiel sat down with disastrous results. His sudden determination to rest caused his revolver to drop from his hip pocket. It was discharged, the bullet burying itself in the ceiling, narrowly missing the patrolman himself.

Manufacturers to Meet.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—The annual meeting of the Illinois Manufacturers' association will be held in Chicago Dec. 10.
The afternoon session will take place in the assembly room on the tenth floor of the Fine Arts building and the annual dinner and banquet will take place in the dining room of the Anditorium hotel on the ninth floor. The nominating committee has named Fred W. Upham, of this city, a prominent manufacturer of lumber, for president.

CROP IS MOVING SLOWLY

Farmers of Illinois Still Hold 40 Per Cent. of the Oats Raised
This Year.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 29.—Members of Central Illinois Grain Dealers' association, in session here, have issued a statement that owing to the financial stringency fully 40 per cent. of the oats crop of 1907 remains in the hands of the farmers. The corn crop was declared to be the best in years, but that a snappy cold spell is needed to fully mature the crop.

The grain dealers expressed hope in the clearing up of the financial situation through the loans by the banks for the movement of crops, but declare that the grain situation will not be completely in hand until money is forthcoming to assist the grain men to make purchases.

Clinton Burglars Get Quick Justice.

Clinton, Ill., Nov. 29.—Edward Davis and Edward Miller, the state bank robbers, were taken into court and arraigned under an indictment charging them with burglary and larceny. When each said that he wished to plead guilty Judge W. G. Cochran explained that it would be his duty to sentence them under the indeterminate law. He explained that that would be a sentence of from one to twenty years each. They answered that they had nothing to say.
The court then sentenced them, stating that they would be confined one day each year in solitary confinement.

Two Present in the Senate.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 29.—Lieutenant Governor Sherman and Senator Hay were the only members of the senate present at the Thanksgiving day session. An adjournment was taken at once. No legislative business is expected until Lieutenant Governor Sherman names the senate conferees on the primary election bill. The lieutenant governor has signed the house bill increasing the compensation of members of the general assembly to $1,000 a year instead of $1,000 a term. The measure is now in the hands of Governor Denen.

His Boast Was Deadly.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 29.—The coroner makes return that Clyde Duffield died of acute alcoholism. Duffield was 20 years old, and a corn shucker, employed on the Jacob B. Edgar farm.
After receiving his pay he went to Ivesdale, where he boasted of his capacity, and where he drank nearly a half gallon of whisky, dying of the effects. He lived at Effingham.

Death of George W. Starr.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 29.—George W.
Starr, deputy surveyor of the port of Peoria, is dead of pneumonia. His age was 33 years. He was the son of ex-Representative Starr.

S.S.S. FORTY YEARS SUCCESSFUL SERVICE

When a medicine has stood the test for a period of more than two generations and is then more popular than ever, there can be no doubt of its merit. This is the record of S. S. S. Its period of existence is marked by a long line of cures of blood and skin diseases of every character, and its value in the treatment of such troubles has become so well known that it is today the most extensively used blood medicine on the market. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases and all other troubles due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, S. S. S. has no equal.
It counteracts and drives out the poisons, humors and germs, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the disease permanently and restores strong, robust health. Where the blood is weak or anemic, and unable to furnish the body with the nourishment and strength it needs, S. S. S. supplies it with the healthful properties and acts splendidly in toning up and reinvigorating the system. It goes down to the very bottom of all blood disorders, and in this way reaches inherited taints on which the ordinary blood medicines have no effect. Not only is S. S. S. certain in its results, but it is at the same time an absolutely safe remedy. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of known healing and curative value. It does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form to damage the delicate parts of the system, and may be used by children with the same good results and perfect safety as by older people. It is not an experiment to use S. S. S.; it is a remedy with a record and one that has proven its worth by its forty years of successful service. If you are in need of a blood purifier for any cause begin the use of S. S. S., write our physicians and they will send you a book concerning your trouble, and will give without charge any special medical advice that is required.

Nothing Really Surprising.
Nothing in life should be at all surprising since the incredible is what everyone believes and the improbable is what everybody does.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 13.—Some interesting information is disclosed in the recent report made to Governor Deneen regarding the work of the Illinois free employment offices. This report has to do with the number of positions secured during the last three years and gives an indication of the value of these offices to men out of work.

There are four offices now in operation in Illinois, three in Chicago and one in Peoria. A recent appropriation by the legislature provides for the opening and maintenance of a fifth office in East St. Louis, which is the headquarters for men in search of employment.

Figures for Three Years.

Following are the figures for the three years:

North Side Chicago office: Positions secured in 1905, 8,025; 1906, 10,300; 1907 (to date of report) 9,972.

West Side Chicago office: Positions secured in 1905, 12,040; 1906, 17,109; 1907 (to date of report) 15,768.

South Side Chicago office: Positions secured in 1905, 12,577; 1906, 16,707; 1907 (to date of report) 17,004.

Peoria office: Positions secured in 1905, 6,800; 1906, 10,500; 1907 (to date of report) 10,200.

The figures in 1907 in each case are for ten months, indicating that by the end of the fiscal year the number of positions secured will be far in excess of last year.

The South Side Chicago office has the lead in the number of applications and in positions secured. While these figures are impressive enough in themselves they do not represent the entire scope of the work performed through the free employment offices. Hundreds of applications for information which result, indirectly, in securing positions for unemployed men are made every year. As there is no means of ascertaining the results obtained through this information there is no record of it, but those in charge of the work understand its value. As the general public gets better acquainted with the employment offices applications for information become more frequent and the work is extended.

Big Increase in Applications.

In the last annual report made to the governor it was shown that in a year there had been a gain of 12,116 in the number of persons registered for employment. The number of positions secured was 53,617. The year previous the number was 39,598, showing a gain for the year of 14,019. While this marked increase appeared for those seeking employment it was shown there had been a greater increase in the demand from employers for help. The increase in applications from employers was 16,331. In commenting upon the figures the report says:

"These numbers of course represent only the persons whose names are enrolled on the books, while in addition there are perhaps many times the number who call at these offices and ask numerous questions. So it will be evident that the persons in charge of these offices are kept busy during all of the office hours of each day."

The report says that some criticism has been made in different quarters that persons applying for employment at the state free offices are not of a skilled class. This is declared to be erroneous and attention is called to classifications of occupations which are shown in a complete tabulation of the office records. An examination of the tables discloses the fact that common laborers are by no means the only persons securing assistance from the free employment agencies. It is shown in one table that of the males registered during the year for positions in such occupations as clerical, commercial, professional, trades and transportation, 6,372 were secured positions. For females in the same occupations, excepting transportation, positions were secured for 7,092, who are engaged in occupations demanding more or less trained ability.

Work for Paroled Convicts.

The report gives particular attention to the work of employment agencies in securing positions for paroled convicts who desire to reform and make a new start in life. In this connection it says:

"The wholesome influence such offices are capable of exerting upon society has been demonstrated in the facilities they have furnished to certain unfortunate classes of the community. Governor Deneen, believing that the humanitarian side of this work could be improved upon, urged that special attention be given to securing homes and employment for paroled convicts. Men who have been punished for breaking the law are entitled upon their release to have an equal chance with others to earn an honest living. This is usually denied them because of a false public sentiment that such unfortunate are no longer worthy of confidence and respect."

"As a result of this many offenders, instead of being encouraged in their intentions to lead better lives, are driven into criminal careers. Society is interested in the improvement of all its members, particularly the weaker ones who have surrendered to temptations. If the machinery of the state is to be employed, in some instances at great expense, to secure the conviction and punishment of those who violate its laws, surely it is not expecting too much that some effort should be made to effect their reformation. Acting upon Governor Deneen's recommendations, the work of obtaining employment for paroled convicts was assumed by the superintendent of the South side office, William H. Cruden, under whose competent management a notable degree of success has been reached.

Employers Know Records.

"The responsibility attached to such work is now shared by each of the other employment offices. In securing places for this class of our people no attempt is made to conceal anything, the facts in each case being fully explained to the employers, to whom much credit is due for the public spirit they have shown in their willingness to aid such people. Homes and remunerative employment have been secured for over one hundred paroled convicts within a period of eight months."

For a time there was some prejudice against the free employment agency on the part of the employer. This had no substantial foundation and was due entirely to the fact that the state employment agency was a novelty. Recently employers have learned that excellent results can be obtained by applying to the agencies for help, and they are now attended freely by a class of men seeking employment. The efforts of the state agents to secure and furnish accurate information regarding the employes is recognized and appreciated. As the work is extended employers will rely more and more upon the state offices and they will become of greater assistance to the unemployed.

In examining the figures of the annual report for last year it is found that of those registering and desirous of securing employment 73.10 per cent. were males and 26.90 per cent. females. Of the number of employers seeking help 69.08 per cent. were males and 30.92 per cent. females. This indicates that the proportionate demand for female help is greatly in excess of the demand for male employes, especially by those desiring household help.

Proportion for Four Offices.

The West side office shows that 81.94 per cent. of the positions secured were for males; Peoria office, 75.83 per cent.; South side office, 72.74 per cent., and the North side office, 58.38 per cent. For positions secured for female applicants the North side office shows 41.62 per cent., which is a large number in proportion to the other offices. The West side office gives the highest per cent. The positions secured for males was 73.52 per cent. and for females 26.48 per cent.

In the record and recapitulation of the work done by the officers during the seven years they have been in operation it is found that 193,219 males have registered as applicants for employment and that during the same period 184,285 employers registered as wanting help. Of those wanting employment 167,543 were placed in positions. From the totals given it is disclosed that 86.71 per cent. secured positions and 90.92 per cent. of the employers obtained help. Among the class of occupations that of clerical service shows the most percentage of applicants securing employment and the highest percentage of help furnished to employers.

Attention is called to the large percentages of positions secured during the series of years, to the numbers who have classed under the occupations as agricultural, comprising farm hands, gardeners, harvest hands, stock men, etc. Domestic service, such as cooks, housemen, porters etc. and manual labor which includes laborers of all kinds, also railroad laborers; these three classes represent 63.5 per cent. of the total number seeking work, 93.7 per cent. of whom were given employment.

Applicants of All Nationalities.

The report shows that the 57,489 applicants at the free employment offices during the year represented the following nationalities:

American, 24,813; German and Hollanders, 8,749; Irish, 5,934; Swede, 2,856; the remainder being divided between the Austrian, Bohemian, Canadian, Danish, English, French, Italian, Norwegian, Polish, Russian, Scotch, Swiss and Welsh.

The chiefs of the employment office are: Chicago—South side, William H. Cruden; North side, John E. Huffmeyer; West side, Stephen P. Revere. Peoria, John W. Kinsey, and East St. Louis, Michael Radel.

The cost of maintaining the offices outside of salaries for the chiefs and their assistants were: Chicago, North side $1,880.81, South side $2,665.32, West side $1,445.03; Peoria, $1,511.31.

As the East St. Louis office has just been opened its cost of maintenance will not be known until the expiration of a year.

Kid Gloves Saved His Life.

Charles Stamler was passing Third street, in Elizabeth, N. J., just as a trolley car came along, and, waiting to let it pass, he started to go around its rear end.

The pole of the car got entangled in the guard wire, which broke and fell to the street, striking the heavily charged feed wire. It struck Stamler, knocking him flat and badly burning him across the face and neck. He pushed the deadly wire from him with his kid-gloved hands and then regained his feet. His gloves saved his life.

Troubles of an Amateur.

"I thought you had gone to raising bees," said the man from the city. "I don't see any signs of them around here." "I had half a dozen colonies of the finest bees I could get," answered the suburbanite, "and a whole library of literature on bee raising; but they swarmed one day, and while I was looking through my books to find out what was the proper thing to do when bees swarmed the blamed things flew away, and I've never seen 'em since."
